Hi, who just joined the call?	Can you email that to everyone?	Is [name] still on the call?	Um, [name] we still see your screen.	I gotta jump on another call.
Typing on the loudest keyboard ever sold.	Echo echo echo echo echo.	Toddler cry and/or dog barking.	Can everyone still hear me?	No, its still loading.
Next slide, please.	Everyone, please mute your phone.	Ug. I was still on mute.	Oh! Sorry, I thought you were done.	Hello? Hello?
So, we [garble] is [garble].	Sorry I'm late, but [lame excuse].	I have a hard stop in 30.	Repeat that. Your phone cut off.	We should take this off-line.
I gotta get back to you on that.	Can you all see my screen?	What? Sorry, my cell sucks.	I dunno. I think his line dropped.	Hold on. I'll send her an invite now.

PRINT & PLAY ON YOUR NEXT TEAM CALL!

I don't know who wrote the original handwritten whiteboard version that was joyfully passed around in social, but it deserves a place in The Business Cheeky Hall of Fame. I created this printable rendering in her/his honor! @BHSMITH www.ibradley.com
